

American Nuclear Society
Robotics and Remote Systems Division

Ray Goertz Award Nomination Form

The Ray Goertz Award was established in 1985 to recognize outstanding contributions in the field of remote technology in hazardous environments. This award honors the late Raymond C. Goertz for his lifetime contribution to the advancement of remote handling systems and for his development of the master-slave manipulator.

Nomination Requirements:

- Any ANS RRSD member in good standings may nominate a candidate
- A nomination can be submitted at any time for consideration
- The frequency of this award's distribution is at the discretion of the RRSD Executive Committee Honors and Awards Chair in association with the RRSD Executive Committee
- Candidate are judged by their contribution to the advancement and/or application of remote technology in hazardous environment

Candidate Information

Name:

Title:

Organization:

Phone:

Email Address:

Nominator Information

Name:

Title:

Organization:

Phone:

Email Address:

Summary explaining the qualification of the nominee and his/her contribution to the field of remote technology in hazardous environment. (300 – 500 words)